ABOUT AMICUSX

AmicusX is an online platform that reflects the evolving dynamics of legal education. This website is the result of the enthusiasm of a group of law students, lawyers and laymen, who have come together to decode and cognize the multi-faceted understanding of law. The website offers its visitors an opportunity to read about different legal aspects through its blogs, but the offering does not end there. AmicusX aims to fill in the gap between the learnings from law school and the requirements of the legal practice. AmicusX connects to law students through internships, competitions and other different types of engagements.
